Mr. Hilgenberg

Career Based Intervention

Learning Target: I can describe ways to behave ethically in the workplace.

Scenario: You would like to take more initiative at work, so you have decided to start a recycling program at your office. Copier paper and beverage cans are the main items you would like to start recycling.

1. Visit your local government's web site to see if there is a drop off spot or a special collection site for recycling the above items.
2. Draw up a brief plan of action for your recycling program. Write a few slogans to convince your co-workers to recycle.
